

Funding for Environmental Technology Innovation

The BC Environment Industry Association will host a day-long workshop in co-operation with Environment Canada – BC Region on Funding for Environmental Technology Innovation

Tuesday, March 20, 2007, 8:00 - 4:30

Canada Export Centre 602 West Hastings Street Vancouver, BC

Members of BCEIA: $ 75.00 Non-BCEIA Members: $95.00

BC environmental companies have often known that financing is one of the main barriers in the development of new technology. This workshop will provide you with strategic information on a wide range of funding programs, tax incentives and business support services that can assist you in advancing your technology ideas. This workshop will provide:

- An update on the Federal Government ecoENERGY initiative and new funding programs for environmental innovation
- An overview of the Government of British Columbia's new strategy to support environmental innovation (To be confirmed)
- A Presentation on 2010 Sustainable Business opportunities
- Guest Speaker Presentations plus Case Studies showing how small-to-medium enterprises in BC have benefited from government funding programs to implement environmental innovation
- Environment Canada demonstration on how to access and navigate through a new website that provides important information on a broad range of government funding programs targeting environmental technology innovation
- Opportunities for informal networking with presenters, other government resource people, and to share insights and experiences with other participants.
- Participants will have the opportunity to arrange One-on-One meetings with presenters, following completion of all presentations.

PRESENTATIONS: The following organizations/programs will be presenting:

- Environment Canada "Show me the Money"
- Sustainable Development Technology Canada
- NRC-IRAP National Research Council - Industrial Research Assistance Program
- SR&ED Scientific Research & Experimental Development (Federal) Tax Credit Program
