

TEXAS: LEADER OF THE AMERICAN ECONOMY

Texas Forum & Lunch

Tuesday - July 21, 2009

11:45 am - 1:45 pm

Location: Hyatt Regency Hotel - Oxford Room (3rd Floor)
655 Burrard Street - Vancouver

The State of Texas and the US Commercial Service invite companies interested in investing in and/or expanding to the US to attend the Texas Forum Lunch in Vancouver on July 21 2009.

Texas Secretary of State Esperanza "Hope" Andrade

the leading International State Official in Texas will lead a series of presentations from Texas companies and from Texas Governor Rick Perry's Office of Economic Development covering commercial topics related to business in Texas including various financial programs and incentives.

As the leader in job creation with a GDP of over US $1.2 trillion, Texas enjoys a robust economy with one of the lowest tax burdens in the US, including no personal income or corporate tax.

This is an excellent opportunity to meet key Texas decision makers and make valuable professional and governmental contacts who can help advance your business interests in the nation's leading economy.
